

THELMA A. BOAMAH Front End Web Developer

thelma@thelma.codes | (732) 343-4176 | Github: /thelmaboamah | LinkedIn: /in/thelmaboamah

PROFILE

A recent graduate of front end development and UI/UX coursework with 3 years of visual communications experience within the nonprofit and education sectors.

WEB DEVELOPMENT EXPERIENCE

Front End Developer

NY Code + Design Academy, New York, NY, 2016

Completed project-based coursework in front end web development and UI/UX research and design.

PROJECTS

- One-page website: Built a responsive one-page website using Bootstrap, Parallax, and the jQuery One Page Nav Plugin
- Airbnb Homepage Clone: Replicated homepage for mobile, tablet, and desktop views using HTML5, CSS Flexbox, and jQuery (<http://bit.ly/23p9ODu>)
- GhanaThink.org Redesign: Implemented best practices in UX research to wireframe, prototype, and test redesign for nonprofit website

Community Manager/Teaching Assistant

The Code School, Accra, Ghana, 2014-15

- Worked closely with founder to launch coding intensive
- Provided supplementary instruction in HTML and CSS

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Program Director

GhanaThink Foundation, Accra, GH, 2014-15

- Designed and piloted 10-week soft skills training and internship placement program for recent high school grads

Graduate Intern

Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ, 2012

- Advised undergraduate students on study abroad options

SKILLS/TECHNOLOGIES

HTML

CSS/Sass

JavaScript/jQuery

AJAX/JSON

Bootstrap

Responsive Design

UX Research

Usability Testing

EDUCATION

Front End 101 | UI/UX 101

New York Code + Design Academy,
New York, NY, 2016

MA International Education

SIT Graduate Institute,
Brattleboro, VT, 2011 - 2013

BA Africana Studies

New York University,
New York, NY, 2005 - 2009

AWARDS

Advancing Leaders Fellowship

World Learning,
Washington, D.C., 2014